

Incoming Wire Transfer Instructions

Cyprus Federal Credit Union can receive wire transfers directly from the Federal Reserve Bank. To ensure timely processing and prevent the return or delay of incoming wire transfers, please provide completed wiring instructions to the Debtor/Sender/Originator. For more information about wire transfers, please visit <https://www.cypruscu.com/accounts/resources/wire-transfers/>.

International Wire Transfers:

Cyprus Federal Credit Union does not receive international wire transfers directly. Foreign banks must use their own correspondent or intermediary bank with a SWIFT code to facilitate fund transfers into the United States. The intermediary bank will then forward the funds to Cyprus FCU for final credit using the account information provided above. Please note that Cyprus FCU does not have a SWIFT, BIC, or IBAN code.

Wire Fraud:

Since wire transfers are irrevocable, they are often used in scams. Make sure you are transferring funds with a trusted source and keep an eye out for suspicious behavior. For more information about fraud prevention, please visit <https://www.cypruscu.com/services/other-services/fraud-alerts-prevention>.
